

<http://www.sfoutsidelands.com/ggp/index.php>

Chronicle / Frederic Larson

http://imgs.sfgate.com/c/pictures/2003/02/25/ba_ggpark2.jpg

Views from Above: 1,017 acres of park land

Expanse near Conservatory of Flowers

Typical Walking Path
Within Golden Gate Park

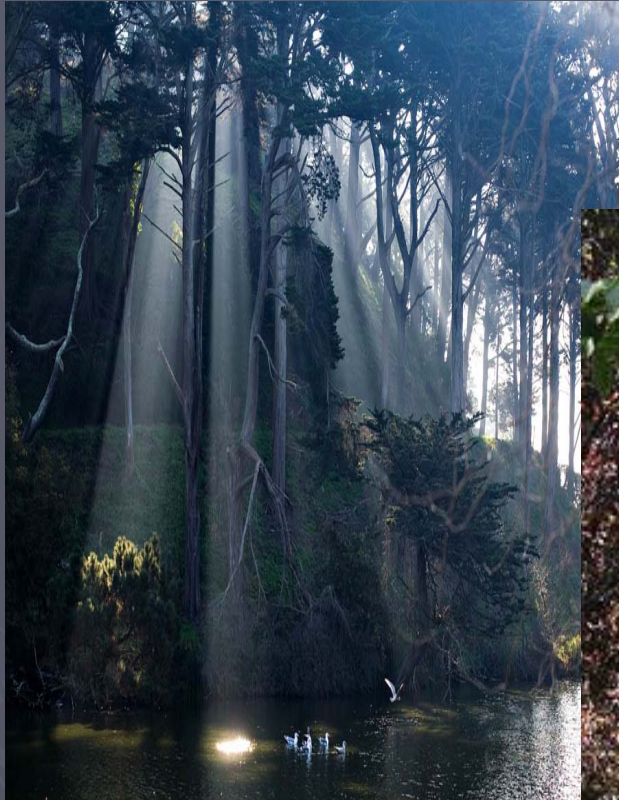

http://image26.webshots.com/27/5/81/16/387858116hvymol_ph.jpg

Tree Fern Dell

Stow Lake

<http://img2.allposters.com/images/DANPOD/US05MWE0034-FB.jpg>

Japanese Tea Garden 1894 Midwinter International Exposition

<http://www.planetware.com/i/photo/buffalo-paddock-san-francisco-ca052.jpg>

Buffalo Paddock

- ▶ Descendants from original buffalo brought in 1898 from Wyoming

Benefits Analysis of Park

- ▶ Physical Activities and Health Benefits
- ▶ Ability to experience nature without going far from home
- ▶ Recreational amenities in park such as lakes, Japanese Tea Garden
- ▶ Educational Opportunities such as museums

- ▶ Non Native plants affecting biodiversity
- ▶ Water usage and maintenance
- ▶ Artificial environment city committed to maintain

http://www.archicentral.com/wp-content/images/04_aerial_view_sq.jpg

Aerial Shot California Academy of Natural Sciences

Hills of California Academy of Natural Science's Green Roof

Green Roof and Native Plants

Hills to channel cool air to center of roof
Native plants to attract butterflies

California Academy of Sciences

Building materials used

- ▶ The Material World
- ▶ 32,000 tons of sand from foundation excavation applied to dune restoration projects in San Francisco
- ▶ 95% of all steel from recycled sources
- ▶ 50% of lumber harvested from sustainable-yield forests
- ▶ 68% of insulation comes from recycled blue jeans
- ▶ 90% of office space will have natural light and ventilation
- ▶ 30% less energy consumption than federal code requirement
- ▶ http://www.calacademy.org/academy/building/sustainable_design/

www.moonbattery.com

Thank You!